- 1.2. Unless DBS Vickers otherwise agrees with the Customer, each obligation of DBS Vickers to make any payment to the Customer under this Agreement is subject to the condition precedent that there is no Default subsisting.
- 1.3. The Customer shall not without the prior written consent of DBS Vickers assign, charge or encumber any Account or the Customer's rights therein or create or confer in favour of any person any interest in any Account. DBS Vickers shall not be required to recognise any person other than the Customer as having any interest in any Account.
- 1.4. DBS Vickers shall be entitled (but not obliged) to record (by any means) any communications (through any medium) between DBS Vickers and the Customer or any officer, servant or agent of the Customer using any recording apparatus, without prior warning to the Customer. Any such recording may be used in evidence against the Customer and shall constitute prima facie evidence of the communications so recorded.
- 1.5. DBS Vickers shall be entitled (but not obliged):-
 - (a) to assume the role of the counter-party to any contract or transaction which DBS Vickers has been given an Order to effect on behalf of the Customer or is under a duty to effect on behalf of the Customer; and/or
 - (b) to enter into that contract or transaction with the Customer, and unless required by law, DBS Vickers need not inform the Customer whether any such contract or transaction of the Customer has been effected with DBS Vickers as the counter-party and DBS Vickers shall be absolutely entitled to all gains, profits and benefits derived from any such contract or transaction of the Customer with DBS Vickers.
- 1.6. DBS Vickers is authorised but not obliged either by itself or through its nominee, agent, sub-custodian, representative or correspondent or otherwise and whether in Singapore or elsewhere to do any lawful act or thing which in the discretion of DBS Vickers is necessary to preserve the integrity of the securities, commodities, monies or other property held in any Account and/ or any Account and/or to protect the reasonable interests of the Customer and/or DBS Vickers.
- 1.7. The Customer shall be responsible for the reporting requirements under the Applicable Laws in respect of the sale and/or purchase of any securities in any corporation including but not limited to the Customer's holdings in a corporation as a director and/or substantial shareholder of such corporation. The Customer shall be responsible for the reporting requirements in respect of any taxable income derived therefrom to the relevant authorities.
- 1.8. The services to be provided by DBS Vickers to the Customer under this Agreement are non-exclusive and DBS Vickers shall be permitted to perform such services for such other persons as DBS Vickers in its absolute discretion deems fit and be duly paid or compensated therefor and DBS Vickers shall not be liable or under any obligation :-
 - (a) to account to the Customer for any benefit received by DBS Vickers for providing such services to others; or
 - (b) to disclose to the Customer any fact or thing which may come to the notice of DBS Vickers in the course of providing such services to others or in the course of the business in any other capacity or in any manner whatsoever.

- 1.9 (a) All acts performed by DBS Vickers (and/or, where Section F applies, the Fund Representatives) prior to receiving written notice of the Customer's death, incapacity of or incapability shall be valid and binding upon the Customer and the Customer's successors in title.
- (b) In the event of the Customer's death, DBS Vickers (and/or, where Section F applies, the Fund Representatives) shall be absolutely protected in acting under this Agreement until it receives actual notice of death from the legal personal representatives or executors of the Customer. The legal personal representatives or executors will be recognised as having the sole authority to act under this Agreement on behalf of the deceased Customer.
- 1.10 In respect of the performance of this Agreement by the Customer, time shall be of the essence in all respects.
- 1.11 The Customer consents that, without any further notice from DBS Vickers, when DBS Vickers executes any buy or sell Orders on behalf of the Customer, DBS Vickers' shareholders, Affiliates, Director, Officers and/or employees may be the counterparty in such transaction for any proprietary account or an account in which any of them has a direct or indirect interest, subject to the limitations and conditions, if any, contained in the rules or regulations of SGX-ST, SGX-DT or the securities market or futures market upon which such buy or sell Orders are executed and subject to the limitations and conditions, if any, contained in any applicable business rules of SGX-ST or SGX-DT or such markets.
- 1.12 The acceptance and execution by the Customer of the risk disclosure statement set out in the Schedule required to be furnished by a Trading Member under the SGX-ST Securities Trading Rules shall be a condition precedent to DBS Vickers' performance of its obligations under this Agreement.

A2. Orders

- 2.1 Nothing in this Agreement obliges DBS Vickers to enter into transactions with the Customer and DBS Vickers may refuse to enter into any such transaction or otherwise act on any Order without having to give a reason therefor.
- 2.2 DBS Vickers shall be entitled (but not obliged) to act on any Orders which DBS Vickers in good faith has reason to believe is from the Customer. Without prejudice to the foregoing:-
- (a) DBS Vickers shall be entitled (but not obliged) to verify and be satisfied with respect to the identity of the person purporting to give such Order or the source and origin of such Order and DBS Vickers may defer relying or acting upon any such Order unless and until DBS Vickers is satisfied as to the matters on which DBS Vickers sought verification;
- (b) in the event that DBS Vickers decides to act on any Order or is otherwise under an obligation to act on any Order, DBS Vickers shall be allowed such amount of time to act and implement any Order as may be reasonable having regard to the systems and operations of DBS Vickers and the other circumstances then prevailing and shall not be liable for any Loss arising from any delay on the part of DBS Vickers in acting on any such Order;
- (c) where any Order is ambiguous or inconsistent with any other Order, DBS Vickers shall be entitled to rely and act upon any Order in accordance with any reasonable interpretation thereof which any Officer believes in good faith to be the correct interpretation or refuse to act until a fresh Order is obtained; and

- (d) DBS Vickers need only act on Orders from the Customer in respect of any Account or any part or all of the securities, commodities, monies or other property held in any Account. DBS Vickers shall not be required to act in accordance with any Order from the Customer which purports to dispose of or deal with securities, commodities, monies or other property which are in fact not held in any Account.
- 2.3 DBS Vickers shall not be liable to the Customer for any and all Loss incurred by the Customer arising from any loss or delay in the transmission or wrongful interception of any Order through any equipment or system, including any equipment or system owned and/or operated by or for DBS Vickers including without limitation as a result of any electrical shortage, failure of communications or common carrier or failure of computer hardware and/ or software.
- 2.4 The Customer acknowledges and consents to the right of DBS Vickers to aggregate the Customer's Orders (including any requests for application for securities in a new offer of securities pursuant to Clause A18) with the orders of DBS Vickers' other customers. The allotment or distribution of any securities, commodities, monies or other property pursuant to such aggregation of orders to or amongst the Customer and its other customers shall, subject to Applicable Laws, be at DBS Vickers' sole discretion. The Customer accepts that such allotment or distribution may result in inequities on some occasions.
- 2.5 The Customer understands that if it does not pay for any securities which it purchases by the due date of the purchase transaction, DBS Vickers has the right to force sell any or all of these securities. DBS Vickers may (without prejudice to its rights under this Agreement) but need not exercise this right on any day after the day on which the right to force sell first arose. DBS Vickers shall not be liable to the Customer for any Loss suffered by the Customer as a result of any fall in the market price of the securities between the time the right to force sell arose and the time it actually sells the securities.
- 2.6 Before placing an order for the sale of securities, the Customer shall ensure that the relevant securities are available for delivery and will constitute good delivery thereof on the settlement date of the transaction. If delivery of securities is not made on the settlement date, DBS Vickers shall, subject to applicable laws, have the right to buy-in immediately and bill the Customer for the difference. DBS Vickers may (without prejudice to its rights under this Agreement) but need not exercise this right on any day after the day on which the right to buy-in first arose. DBS Vickers will not be liable to the Customer for any Loss suffered by the Customer as a result of any rise in the market price of the securities between the time the right to buy-in arose and the time it actually buys the securities.

A3. Transactions and Limits

DBS Vickers may in its absolute discretion without giving any reason and without notice to the Customer at any time and from time to time impose and/or review any limits, including without limitation, position limits and limits on contract size in respect of any Account and the Customer shall not exceed such limits. Where SGX-ST or SGX-DT imposes limits which are more generous than the limits imposed by DBS Vickers, the Customer shall be obliged to comply with the limits imposed by DBS Vickers. Limits are not a guarantee and the Customer shall not construe them to be a cap on financial obligations, which may exceed the limits.

A4. Margin

- 4.1 The Customer shall deposit, maintain in each Account and/ or otherwise provide DBS Vickers with Margin in such form and amounts, at such times and in respect of such Account as DBS Vickers may from time to time in its sole and absolute discretion require, whether or not such requirement of DBS Vickers is identical to or reflects or is greater than any applicable Margin requirements of any governmental or self-regulatory organisation in any jurisdiction (including any exchange) which is required to be maintained by DBS Vickers and/or the Customer. Without prejudice to the foregoing, DBS Vickers shall reasonably endeavour to inform the Customer to top up the Margin where required but it is the Customer's duty to make itself available to receive such information.

- 4.2 The Customer hereby acknowledges and agrees that separate Margin shall be provided by the Customer in respect of each Account as DBS Vickers may require, and that the Margin in respect of each Account shall be treated as separate for the purposes of this Agreement. Upon specific instructions provided by the Customer, DBS Vickers may (but is not obliged to) transfer all or part of the Margin held by DBS Vickers for the Customer in respect of any Account to any other Account or to utilise such Margin for any purposes as required by the Customer.
- 4.3 DBS Vickers may, in its sole and absolute discretion, with or without notice to the Customer, vary the Margin requirements for any Account at any time and by any level, and may also stipulate that such Margin requirements shall apply to existing positions as well as new positions in the transactions affected by such variation. The Customer acknowledges that DBS Vickers may, in certain market conditions, effect an immediate change in Margin limits or levels and/or require additional Margin to be deposited immediately or within a specified period of time which may be less than 24 hours, and waives any right to object on the grounds that such requirement is unreasonable. No previous Margin requirements shall set a precedent or bind DBS Vickers.
- 4.4 If DBS Vickers determines that additional Margin is required, the Customer shall deposit with DBS Vickers such additional Margin immediately upon demand, provided that, notwithstanding any such demand for additional Margin, DBS Vickers may at any time exercise its rights set out in Clause A9. In making such determination in respect of the Margin provided for any Account, DBS Vickers shall not be required to take into consideration Margin held by DBS Vickers for the Customer in respect of any other Account.
- 4.5 The Customer acknowledges that the Margin may be held and used to secure the performance of the Customer's obligations as well as for such other purposes as the Applicable Laws may permit or stipulate for the transactions traded under any Account.
- 4.6 All Margin shall be held by DBS Vickers, notwithstanding any provision or instructions to the contrary, as continuing security and shall be subject to a general lien and right of set-off in favour of DBS Vickers for any and all of the Customer's liabilities to DBS Vickers (whether contingent or actual) under this Agreement or otherwise, and DBS Vickers may realise any of the Margin of the Customer as provided for in this Agreement.
- 4.7 DBS Vickers shall be entitled to deposit, pledge, repledge or loan any Margin in whatever form provided to DBS Vickers or otherwise, and shall not be under any obligation to account to the Customer for any interest, income or benefit that may be derived therefrom. No interest shall be paid on any type of Margin deposited by the Customer with DBS Vickers and the Customer acknowledges and consents that interest earned on the Margin deposited under this Agreement may be retained by DBS Vickers for its own account and benefit. DBS Vickers shall at no time be required to deliver to the Customer the identical property delivered to or purchased by DBS Vickers as Margin for the Account(s) but only property of substantially the same kind and amount, subject to adjustments for quantity and quality variations at the market price prevailing at the time of such delivery.

- 4.8 The Customer shall at its own cost and at DBS Vickers' request, execute and do all such deeds, acts and things (including without limitation, the performance of such further acts or the execution and delivery of any additional instruments or documents) as DBS Vickers may require for the purposes of this Agreement, including but not limited to perfecting DBS Vickers' rights to the Margin provided by the Customer.
- 4.9 DBS Vickers may deposit in DBS Vickers' segregated trust account or any other account, any Margin of the Customer and may commingle such Margin with the cash and properties of DBS Vickers' other customers.

A5. Fees and Payments and Currency Conversion

- 5.1 The Customer shall promptly pay all DBS Vickers' fees, commissions and/or other charges at such rates and in such manner as DBS Vickers may impose and stipulate from time to time with respect to the execution, performance and/or settlement of any transaction or otherwise for the maintenance of any Account or the provision of any service or facility to the Customer or in connection with any Account.
- 5.2 DBS Vickers shall be entitled to charge interest on any sum or payment due to DBS Vickers from the Customer at such rate and calculated and/or compounded in such manner as DBS Vickers may impose and determine from time to time and to debit any Account in respect of the interest due.
- 5.3 All payments to DBS Vickers shall be in the currency in which they are due, in free and clear funds and free of deductions or withholdings. If the Customer is required to effect such deductions or withholdings, then the amount due to DBS Vickers shall be increased by such amount as shall result in DBS Vickers receiving an amount equal to the amount DBS Vickers should have received in the absence of such deduction or withholding.
- 5.4 Any taxes, duties, disbursements, costs and/or other expenses incurred by DBS Vickers in connection with the Account or the Customer shall be reimbursed by the Customer.
- 5.5 All interest, fees, commissions and other charges of DBS Vickers are exclusive of Goods and Services Tax (where applicable) which shall be borne and separately charged to the Customer.
- 5.6 If for any reason DBS Vickers cannot effect payment or repayment to the Customer in a particular currency in which payment or repayment is due, DBS Vickers may effect payment or repayment in the equivalent in any other currency selected by DBS Vickers based on a rate of exchange determined by DBS Vickers in respect thereof at the relevant time.
- 5.7 DBS Vickers shall be entitled to convert any sum received by DBS Vickers (whether for credit into any Account or in payment of any sum due to DBS Vickers) to the currency of the Account or the currency in which payment is to be made, as the case maybe, at a rate of exchange determined by DBS Vickers at the relevant time.
- 5.8 DBS Vickers may, at any time at a rate determined by DBS Vickers in its sole and absolute discretion, convert any amounts in any Account or standing to the credit of the Customer to any other currency for the purposes of carrying out Orders of the Customer or exercising DBS Vickers' rights under these terms and conditions or under any Account. Exchange rate losses and the costs of conversion shall be borne by the Customer. DBS Vickers may earn revenue, in addition to the applicable commission, based on the difference between the applicable bid and ask rates for the currency and the rate at which the rate is offset in the market.

- 5.9 Unless otherwise specified by DBS Vickers in its discretion, all transactions shall be settled in the Singapore dollar.

A6. Customer's Monies

- 6.1 The Customer agrees that in the event where payments are made prior to the date for settlement of purchases or monies are otherwise received by DBS Vickers on account of the Customer, DBS Vickers shall deposit such amounts into a trust account.
- 6.2 DBS Vickers may, for the purpose of depositing monies received on the Customer's account which are denominated in a foreign currency in a trust account, maintain a trust account with a custodian outside Singapore.
- 6.3 The Customer acknowledges that DBS Vickers may place monies received on the Customer's account in an omnibus customer trust account (including without limitation, in relation to the DBS Vickers optimal cash account service) together with monies that DBS Vickers holds for other customers. As such, the Customer further acknowledges that it would be administratively and operationally difficult (in view of the constant fluctuation of the aggregate balance in such account), to account separately for each of DBS Vickers' customers the interest due on their cash balance in the omnibus trust account as interest will be received on an aggregated basis. The Customer agrees to waive and relinquish in favour of DBS Vickers all claims for interest that may otherwise accrue with respect to the Customer's monies in any trust account, including without limitation, the omnibus trust account.
- 6.4 The Customer consents that DBS Vickers may hold monies received on the Customer's account on trust in the forms of investment stipulated in Regulation 20 of the Securities and Futures (Licensing and Conduct of Business) Regulations. The Customer further consents that all returns from the investment of the Customer's monies held in trust by DBS Vickers in accordance with the said Regulation 20 shall accrue to DBS Vickers.
- 6.5 The Customer shall provide written instruction to DBS Vickers in respect of any payment of the Customer's monies in the trust account to any party other than the Customer, and such payment shall be subject to the prior approval of DBS Vickers.

A7. Applicable Laws

The Customer's relationship with DBS Vickers, the operation of all Accounts and the implementation of all Orders shall be subject at all times to the Applicable Laws. DBS Vickers may take or refrain from taking any action whatsoever, and the Customer shall comply with, and shall do all things required by DBS Vickers in order to procure or ensure compliance with, Applicable Laws. The Customer agrees that DBS Vickers shall not be liable to the Customer as a result of any action taken by DBS Vickers to comply with Applicable Laws.

A8. Joint Accounts and Partnership Accounts

- the term "Customer" hereunder shall refer to each person or partner jointly and severally, and the liability of each such person or partner to DBS Vickers shall be joint and several;
 - DBS Vickers shall be entitled to debit that Account at any time in respect of any sum howsoever due or owed to DBS Vickers by any of the persons in whose name the Account is opened or maintained or constituting the partnership; and

- (c) no person constituting the Customer shall be discharged, nor shall his liability be affected by any discharge, release, time, indulgence, concession, waiver or consent at anytime given or effected in relation to any one or more of the other persons constituting the Customer.
- 8.2 Unless otherwise agreed by DBS Vickers, the Orders, settlement instructions, Instruction or agreement of any one person constituting the Customer shall be deemed to be the Orders, settlement instructions, Instruction or agreement of all the persons constituting the Customer and any notice or communication addressed and sent by DBS Vickers to any one person constituting the Customer shall be deemed to have been addressed and sent to all the persons constituting the Customer and where any such person has received or is deemed to have received any such notice or communication, all the persons constituting the Customer shall be deemed to have received the same.

- 9.6 Upon full settlement of all monies owing or upon termination of the Account (whichever is the later), the Customer shall instruct DBS Vickers as to the proper disposal or transfer of money and other properties of the Customer. If the Customer fails to do so, DBS Vickers may exercise its right under Clause A9.2(b) in the case of the Customer's properties, as if a Default had occurred and pay the proceeds together with any excess money to the Customer by way of cheque to the last known address of the Customer.

- 12.3 (a) Without prejudice to Clause A12.2, the Customer acknowledges and agrees that any recommendation or advice the Customer may receive from any of DBS Vickers' Trading Representatives or Officers, provided always that they are duly authorised to give the same, may be general or specific and there are different implications with respect to each type of advice received which the Customer must seek to understand.
- (b) The Customer acknowledges and agrees that it is a material part of the Customer being allowed to open and maintain an Account with DBS Vickers that the Customer agrees that while the Customer has the option to decide whether the Customer wishes to provide DBS Vickers with the information and answers DBS Vickers requests of the Customer in the Client Investment Profile and/or such as DBS Vickers may ask the Customer from time to time as are reasonably relevant in the circumstances, the Customer has the obligation if the Customer chooses to do so to provide DBS Vickers answers in full and not in part. The Customer therefore agrees that partial or incomplete provision of information and answers may be disregarded by DBS Vickers and the Customer may be treated as having refused and provided no answers or information. Where the Customer has provided DBS Vickers full information and answers, it shall also be the Customer's obligation to keep such information current and accurate, failing which DBS Vickers is entitled to assume that the information and answers provided remain complete and accurate.

- (c) Where the Customer has failed or refused or deemed to have failed or refused to provide DBS Vickers with any information or answers as requested, then the Customer will also be taken as having acknowledged (and DBS Vickers will be regarding and materially relying on the Customer having acknowledged) that DBS Vickers cannot identify with any certainty the Customer's investment objectives, financial circumstances and particular needs and therefore the Customer agrees that any advice or recommendation provided in respect to the Customer's account with DBS Vickers by any of DBS Vickers' duly authorized Trading Representatives or Officers shall be treated as at best only as general advice or recommendation and it is acknowledged and agreed that such advice does not take into account and may not be suitable for the Customer's investment objectives, financial situation and particular needs.
- (d) The Customer also acknowledges and agrees that a distinction should be made with respect to any advice or recommendation that is given on a solicited basis from one given on an unsolicited basis. An advice or recommendation is to be regarded as having been given on an unsolicited basis if it is given otherwise than in response to the Customer's query or request.
- (e) Except if given pursuant to a specific advisory services agreement (and for the payment of an agreed and additional fee for such advice or recommendation), the Customer must and should regard any advice or recommendation given in response to the Customer's request or question as in the nature of general advice or recommendation and again the Customer acknowledges and agrees that such advice may not be suitable for the Customer's investment objectives, financial situation and particular needs.
- (f) Only if the Customer has provided full information and answers as requested by DBS Vickers in the Client Investment Profile and DBS Vickers' supplementary questions and requests and then only in respect of unsolicited advice and recommendations from a duly authorized Trading Representative or officer duly authorized to give such advice and recommendations is the Customer entitled to regard the advice and recommendation given as specific advice given after having taken into account the Customer's investment objectives, financial situation and particular needs as may be reasonably inferred from the Customer's answers.
- (g) No Trading Representative has any authority to give any advice or make any recommendation on DBS Vickers' behalf or on DBS Vickers' account unless specifically authorized to do so by a duly authorized officer of DBS Vickers and notified to the Customer. In any other case, the Trading Representative if he gives any advice or recommendation to the Customer must be assumed and accepted as having given the same without authority from DBS Vickers in his own personal capacity.

- 12.4 No Trading Representative may waive or vary any of DBS Vickers' rights under this Agreement nor may they accept any liability on DBS Vickers' behalf.
- 12.5 DBS Vickers may engage or appoint any person (who or which may not be an Officer of, or related to, DBS Vickers) to carry out and/or clear any Order, perform any duty or obligation of DBS Vickers under this Agreement or to exercise any authority granted to DBS Vickers by the Customer (whether under these terms and conditions or otherwise) and provided that DBS Vickers has engaged or appointed such person in good faith DBS Vickers shall not be liable to the Customer for any and all Loss suffered or incurred by the Customer as a result of any act, omission or insolvency of such person.
- 12.6 In the event that the Customer deals through a Remisier, the Customer shall procure that such Remisier do such acts and execute such documents as DBS Vickers in its discretion may require and notify the Customer, including but not limited to an agency agreement between DBS Vickers and such Remisier in such form as DBS Vickers may require. The Customer acknowledges that any Remisier through whom the Customer transacts shall be deemed for all purposes to be the agent of the Customer vis-a-vis DBS Vickers (including, without limitation, an agent for the purposes of transmitting the Customer's Orders, instructions and communications to DBS Vickers) and DBS Vickers shall not have any responsibility or liability to the Customer for any of the acts and omissions thereof or otherwise in respect of any error committed by the Remisier.
- 12.7 The Customer acknowledges and agrees that where DBS Vickers uses another broker to execute and/or clear the Customer's Orders, DBS Vickers may have to accept sole and principal responsibility to the broker for the executed Order (notwithstanding that as between the Customer and DBS Vickers, DBS Vickers is in fact the agent of the Customer). Accordingly, the Customer shall indemnify DBS Vickers against any and all actions which DBS Vickers deems in good faith necessary to ensure that DBS Vickers will not be in default of its said principal obligation or responsibility. The foregoing right of DBS Vickers will apply even though as between DBS Vickers and the Customer, the Customer may be in actual or anticipatory default. The foregoing indemnity in favour of DBS Vickers is in addition to any other right that DBS Vickers may have (whether expressly provided as between the parties or implied by law).
- 12.8 In view of the fact that DBS Vickers may have accepted principal responsibility and/or liability to another broker, the Customer also acknowledges and consents to the fact that any securities or commodities which (as between DBS Vickers and the Customer) are to be regarded as purchased by the Customer may or will be regarded by any and/or every broker as being the securities or commodities purchased by DBS Vickers for itself. This may in some instances result in prejudice to the Customer. For example, in certain circumstances, the Customer's securities, commodities or properties may be used to satisfy obligations of DBS Vickers as principal or other customers of DBS Vickers. The Customer accepts that this is a necessary risk of dealing in such jurisdictions through DBS Vickers.
- 12.9 Without prejudice to any other provision in this Agreement, the Customer agrees that DBS Vickers may hold securities or commodities purchased for the Customer or may place Margin in an omnibus account of DBS Vickers with another broker/custodian/nominee/exchange/clearing house aggregated with other securities or commodities purchased by DBS Vickers for, or Margin deposited by, other customers of DBS Vickers, and provided that DBS Vickers has selected or engaged such broker / custodian/nominee/exchange/clearing house in good faith, DBS Vickers shall not be liable to the Customer for any and all Loss suffered or incurred by the Customer as a result of any act, omission or insolvency of such broker /custodian/nominee / exchange/clearing house.

A13. General Power of Attorney

- 13.1 DBS Vickers is hereby authorized as the Customer's attorney (with full rights of substitution) with full authority to be the Customer's true and lawful attorney and in the Customer's name to do on the Customer's behalf and as the Customer's acts and deeds all things which the Customer could have done for the purposes of:-
- (a) carrying out any Orders of the Customer;
 - (b) discharging any of its obligations to the Customer; and/or
 - (c) doing any act or thing as may, in DBS Vickers' opinion, be necessary or desirable for the purposes of preserving its rights hereunder.
- 13.2 Registration of this power of attorney in any jurisdiction may be effected on the Customer's behalf by DBS Vickers at the Customer's expense.
- 13.3 The Customer undertakes to ratify and confirm, and hereby ratifies and confirms, all and whatsoever DBS Vickers may do pursuant to this power of attorney.

A14. Extraordinary Event and Force Majeure Event

- 14.1 If there occurs in relation to any transaction or otherwise in relation to an Account or Accounts an Extraordinary Event or Force Majeure Event, DBS Vickers shall have the sole discretion to determine any adjustments or action necessary in relation to such transaction or any or all transactions or otherwise to an Account or Accounts in view of the Extraordinary Event or Force Majeure Event. Such adjustments or actions may include altering or varying the quantities of currencies, securities or commodities or instruments or the exchange rates or specifications of currencies, securities or commodities or instruments bought or sold in respect of such transaction or some or all transactions, or terminating the transaction in question or some or all transactions, or an Account or Accounts or otherwise. Provided DBS Vickers undertakes such action in good faith, any such adjustment or action shall be binding on the Customer who shall be liable for any additional Loss on the account of the Customer or which the Customer is consequently liable for as a result of such adjustment or action.
- 14.2 Notwithstanding Clause A14.1, DBS Vickers shall not be liable to the Customer for any Loss or delay caused by a Force Majeure Event.

A15. Withholding and Set-Off

- 15.1 For so long as the Customer owes monies or obligations (of whatsoever nature and howsoever arising) to DBS Vickers, the Customer may not withdraw any cash, securities, commodities or other property from DBS Vickers without DBS Vickers' consent. DBS Vickers may at any time withhold any cash, securities, commodities or other property of the Customer pending full settlement of all such monies or obligations of the Customer.
- 15.2 Without prejudice and in addition to any general lien, right to set-off or other similar rights which DBS Vickers may be entitled to exercise over the securities, commodities, monies, Investment or other property held in any Account, all such securities, commodities, monies, Investment or other property shall be subject to a general lien for the discharge of all obligations due from the Customer to DBS Vickers. Notwithstanding any provision in this Agreement or any other agreement between any company in the DBS Group and the Customer or any group company of the Customer, the Customer (for itself and as agent on behalf of any group company of the Customer) hereby irrevocably directs DBS Vickers (for itself and as agent on behalf of any company in the DBS Group) to set-off and withhold from and apply receivables or monies held in or for any Account or any other account with DBS Vickers or any company in the DBS Group (including the trust account DBS Vickers are obliged to maintain for the Customer pursuant to DBS Vickers' obligations under the Securities and Futures Act (Cap. 289) against and in whole or partial payment of any sum or liability (of whatever nature or in other currencies and whether or not in connection with any Account) owed by the Customer or any group company of the Customer to DBS Vickers or any company in the DBS Group.

- 15.3 Without prejudice to Clause A15.2, if the Customer has more than one Account with DBS Vickers or any member of the DBS Group, DBS Vickers may at any time without notice to the Customer combine or consolidate all or any of such accounts and set off or transfer any sum standing to the credit of any one or more of such accounts in or towards satisfaction of any obligations or liabilities of whatsoever nature to DBS Vickers in respect of any other accounts.

A16. Charge

- 16.1 As a continuing security for the payment and satisfaction on demand of all monies and liabilities and the performance of all obligations hereunder which are now or at any time hereafter may be due, owing or incurred from or by the Customer to DBS Vickers, the Customer hereby charges to DBS Vickers, free of all encumbrances and adverse interests, by way of first fixed equitable charge all securities (including but not limited to the Custody Securities) which are or have been deposited with or are held by DBS Vickers or its nominee; and by way of a first fixed legal mortgage all securities (including but not limited to the Custody Securities), the title to which has been transferred by the Customer or its nominee to DBS Vickers or its nominee, in each case, including dividends, interests, rights, monies or property accruing in respect thereof. Save for the charge mentioned in this Clause, the Customer will not create nor will the Customer allow to be created any security interest of whatsoever nature over any part or all of the securities (including but not limited to the Custody Securities) without the prior consent in writing of DBS Vickers.
- 16.2 The Customer shall, upon request by DBS Vickers, forthwith execute all such transfers and other documents as may be necessary to enable DBS Vickers or its nominee to perfect the charge, to be registered as owner of, or otherwise obtain legal title to, any securities deposited with or held by it and which are charged to DBS Vickers pursuant to Clause A16.1 above.
- 16.3 Subject to DBS Vickers being satisfied that all obligations and liabilities of the Customer in this Agreement have been duly performed or observed, DBS Vickers may re-transfer or re-deliver any securities charged to DBS Vickers at any time and shall do so upon request by the Customer.
- 16.4 Nothing in this Agreement shall restrict the operation of any general lien or other rights or lien whatsoever which DBS Vickers may be entitled to under general law.

A17. Creation of Further Security and Use Rights

- 17.1 Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in any terms governing the Account(s) or the Custodial Services or Custody Securities, the Customer agrees that with respect to all the Customer's securities and other property that are now or in the future in DBS Vickers' possession and/or control (whether posted as collateral to DBS Vickers or otherwise), DBS Vickers may:
- (a) on a title transfer basis borrow for itself or to on-lend and/or directly on-lend the said securities and other property as principal as if it were the owner thereof to third parties (where Regulation 45 of the Securities and Futures (Licensing and Conduct of Business) Regulations so obliges DBS Vickers) in return for DBS Vickers holding (as between the Customer and DBS Vickers) for the duration of such on-lending any collateral DBS Vickers may receive from DBS Vickers' borrower(s) (and which DBS Vickers will ensure will be of such amount as is required of DBS Vickers to provide under the said Regulation) for the Customer's benefit as security (whether singly or collectively with other clients of DBS Vickers) for the return of the borrowed securities;
 - (b) create over the said securities and other property any encumbrance in favour of a third party by way of security, re-security, charge, re-charge, pledge, re-pledge, hypothecation, re-hypothecation or otherwise to secure DBS Vickers' obligations to a third party account (if mortgaged, pledged or hypothecated otherwise than on a pool basis and otherwise for an amount that does not exceed the aggregate amounts owed by all clients collectively in the pool to DBS Vickers); and/or

- (b) subject such converted payment obligation to DBS Vickers' general right of set-off (in addition to any other rights of set-off and/or consolidation of accounts or obligations DBS Vickers may have at law or in contract); and/or

- (a) that borrowing and on-lending of the Customer's securities will necessarily mean that the Customer loses ownership rights to the said securities. In its place the Customer has a right to claim for equivalent securities from DBS Vickers; and
- (b) that in so far as the Customer will receive manufactured dividends, the Customer may be required to treat the entire amount as income for tax purposes, and is by this acknowledgement and confirmation signing its written consent to the terms in Clause A17. 1

A33. No Waiver

No failure to exercise or enforce and no delay in exercising or enforcing on the part of DBS Vickers of its rights under any of these terms and conditions shall operate as a waiver thereof nor shall it in any way prejudice or affect the right of DBS Vickers afterwards to act strictly in accordance with the powers conferred on DBS Vickers under these terms and conditions. Save as expressly agreed in writing by DBS Vickers, no waiver of any provision in this Agreement, rules, regulations applicable to securities or spot/futures market or otherwise imposed by DBS Vickers relating to all or any transactions for the Customer's Account(s) may be implied from any conduct or course of dealing between the Customer and DBS Vickers.

A34. Indulgence

A35. Rights and Remedies

DBS Vickers' rights and remedies under this Agreement are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by law or by any other agreement.

A36. Translations

These terms and conditions may, at DBS Vickers' discretion, be translated into a language other than the English language. The Customer agrees that such translation shall only be for its convenience and the English text shall prevail in the event of any ambiguity, discrepancy or omission as between the English text and any translated text.

The Customer authorises DBS Vickers, DBS Vickers' staff and any other person who by reason of their scope of work or capacity or office have access to DBS Vickers' records, registers or any correspondence or material with regards to all the Customer personal and account information ("Personal Information") to disclose any Personal Information, where such disclosure is required by any applicable laws (including applicable laws imposing any reporting and/or withholding obligations on DBS Vickers such as the United States Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act as may be amended, superceded or replaced), to:

Right to withhold payments or close Accounts

Any sum that may be payable by DBS Vickers to the Customer shall be subject to all applicable laws, including any withholding tax requirement, foreign exchange restriction or control. The Customer agrees and acknowledges that pursuant to the foregoing DBS Vickers may perform, or cause to be performed withholding of any monies payable to the Customer, deposit any such monies into a sundry or other account and/or retain such monies pending determination of the applicability of such withholding tax requirement, foreign exchange restriction or control. DBS Vickers shall not be liable for any losses that may be incurred by reason of such withholding, retention or deposit.

If there is any inconsistency between the terms herein and any other terms governing the relevant product and/or service, the terms herein shall prevail insofar as they relate to DBS Vickers' compliance with tax, reporting and/or withholding requirements (including but not limited to the United States Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act as may be amended, superseded or replaced).

ADDITIONAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

SECTION B - FUTURES, FOREIGN EXCHANGE AND OTC TRANSACTIONS

B1. Condition Precedent

The acceptance and execution by the Customer of the risk disclosure statement required to be furnished by a capital markets services licence holder under the Securities and Futures Act (Cap. 289) and the Disclaimer Statement for MSCI Contracts, and the acceptance by the Customer of the Notification on SGX Futures Trading Rule (FTR) 1.6, shall be conditions precedent to DBS Vickers' performance of its obligations under this Section B.

B2. General

The Customer acknowledges and agrees that where the Customer has requested, on the Application Form, DBS Vickers to provide services in futures, foreign exchange trading or OTC transactions or subsequent to the date of the Application Form, the Customer has requested DBS Vickers to provide services in futures, foreign exchange trading or OTC transactions, the Customer agrees to comply with the terms and conditions of this Section B which shall apply in addition to all other terms and conditions in the other sections of this Agreement and all other documents pertaining to futures, foreign exchange trading and OTC transactions.

B3. Interest on Margin

The Customer acknowledges and agrees that DBS Vickers may pay interest to the Customer at such rate as it may determine in its sole discretion on any Margin in respect of futures, foreign exchange trading or OTC transactions provided always that DBS Vickers may always retain the difference between such interest and the actual interest earned by DBS Vickers on such Margin. DBS Vickers shall, in this connection, be authorised to withdraw such interest differential from the Customer's Account and pay the same into DBS Vickers' own account.

B4. Settlement of Contracts

- 4.1 For spot or forward trading, there shall be no actual delivery of foreign currencies or cash bullion by DBS Vickers on the maturity date(s) of the transaction(s). On the maturity date(s) of the abovementioned transaction(s), DBS Vickers shall debit or credit the Customer's Account(s) for any losses or profits, as the case may be, suffered or realised respectively by the Customer from the abovementioned transaction(s). Such debit or credit entries shall, in the absence of manifest error, be conclusive evidence without any further proof that such entries are correct and DBS Vickers shall be free from all claims in respect of such transaction(s).
- 4.2 For futures trading, the Customer shall make actual delivery of futures and options relating to the commodity to DBS Vickers on the maturity date(s) of the transaction(s). Without limiting any other right, which DBS Vickers may have under this Agreement, if at any time, the Customer shall be liable to deliver to DBS Vickers any commodity previously sold by DBS Vickers on the Customer's behalf, the Customer authorises DBS Vickers in its sole discretion and on such terms and conditions as it shall consider fit, to borrow or buy and deliver the same on the Customer's behalf and the Customer shall immediately pay and indemnify DBS Vickers for any and all costs, expenses, losses and damages (including consequential costs, expenses, losses and legal fees and premium or other charge which DBS Vickers may be required to pay) which DBS Vickers may sustain in making such borrowing, buying or delivery. If DBS Vickers takes delivery of any commodity for the Customer's Account(s), the Customer agrees to indemnify and hold DBS Vickers harmless against and from any loss that DBS Vickers may suffer resulting directly or indirectly from a decline in value of the abovementioned commodity. The Customer acknowledges and agrees that DBS Vickers shall have no duty to borrow, buy or deliver any of the abovementioned commodity or attempt to do so, in order to satisfy the Customer's delivery obligation in such circumstances.

B5. Liquidation of Futures Positions

The Customer will give DBS Vickers liquidating instructions on open futures and option positions maturing in a current month at least five (5) business days prior to the first notice day in the case of long positions in open futures contracts and at least five (5) business days prior to the last trading day in the case of short positions in open futures contracts and long and short positions in open option contracts. Alternatively, the Customer will provide DBS Vickers with sufficient funds to take delivery of the necessary delivery documents within the same period described above. If neither instructions, nor funds, nor documents are received by DBS Vickers by the time specified above, DBS Vickers may, without notice to the Customer, either liquidate the Customer's position or make or receive delivery on the Customer's behalf upon such terms and by such methods which DBS Vickers deem to be appropriate. If the Customer fails to remit delivery documents in a timely manner, the Customer will be responsible for any and all fines and damages imposed by the SGX-DT, late charges imposed by DBS Vickers and all consequential losses and damages pursuant to Applicable Laws and also to the customary practices prevailing in the market concerned.

B6. Exercise of Rights and Remedies

- 6.1 DBS Vickers may, in its sole and absolute discretion, at any time and from time to time if it deems necessary for the protection of its interest, without notice to the Customer and at the Customer's sole expense and risk, take such measures in such manner as it deems fit in relation to the Account (including but not limited to liquidating any of the positions in the Account by entering into an off-setting transaction or in any other manner as DBS Vickers deems fit, taking delivery under any of the positions in the Account, hedging and/or entering into off-setting or other transactions in order to establish a spread or straddle to protect against any risk of Loss in respect of such positions, selling all or any part of the Margin and/or cancelling or completing any open Orders or other commitments made on behalf of the Customer for the purchase or sale of any property, borrowing or purchasing or otherwise procuring any such property being the subject matter of any sale and making delivery under such sale on terms and conditions deemed appropriate by DBS Vickers). In exercising any of its rights under this Clause, DBS Vickers shall not be obliged to furnish any reason to the Customer.
- 6.2 Without prejudice to generality of Clause B6.1, DBS Vickers may, in the event of a Default, and in addition to its rights and remedies under Clause A9.2, exercise such other rights and remedies as provided under this Clause.

B7. Foreign Exchange Transactions

- 7.1 The Customer acknowledges that foreign exchange transactions may be subject to measures which affect their convertibility and/or liquidity and hereby agrees that DBS Vickers is not obliged to provide quotes for any foreign exchange transaction but if DBS Vickers chooses to do so, it shall not be obliged to ensure that such quote is in line with market as then prevailing.
- 7.2 Settlement of a non-deliverable foreign exchange transaction shall be as stated in the Confirmation for such transaction and shall be effected notwithstanding that no delivery is contemplated.

B8. OTC Transactions

In providing a liquid market and prices for OTC transactions, the Customer hereby acknowledges and agrees that DBS Vickers (or any person authorised by DBS Vickers to accept OTC Orders) may quote OTC prices from other regulated financial institutions to Customers or act as market-makers to Customers in providing bids and offers to be traded under DBS Vickers' market-making accounts.

SECTION C - MARGIN FACILITY

C1. General

The Customer acknowledges and agrees that where the Customer has requested, on the Application Form, a Margin Facility from DBS Vickers or subsequent to the date of the Application Form, the Customer has requested a Margin Facility from DBS Vickers, the Customer agrees to comply with the terms and conditions of this Section C which shall apply in addition to all other terms and conditions in the other sections of this Agreement and all other documents pertaining to the Margin Facility.

C2. Margin Facility

DBS Vickers shall have the right to reduce, cancel or vary and from time to time review a Margin Facility and nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to impose on DBS Vickers any obligation at law or in equity to make or continue to make available to the Customer a Margin Facility.

C3. Purpose of Margin Facility

If granted, the Margin Facility shall only be used by the Customer for financing the purchase of Marginable Securities provided always that the Customer shall not use more than the percentage imposed by DBS Vickers at its discretion and notified to the Customer of the Margin Facility or such other percentage as DBS Vickers may at its absolute discretion stipulate from time to time for financing the purchase of any single purchase of Marginable Security.

C4. Conduct of Transactions under Margin Account

4.1 The Customer hereby undertakes:-

- (a) that it will at all times comply with all collateral deposits, and/or margin ratio, and/or any other maintenance requirements prescribed by DBS Vickers or otherwise notified to the Customer by DBS Vickers. In this connection the Customer shall where required execute such collateral documents (including the Memorandum) as may be required by DBS Vickers to ensure that DBS Vickers will have a valid and enforceable first security interest over all the Customer's securities and/ or property deposited with DBS Vickers as collateral;
- (b) that it shall comply at all times with such position and/or financial exposure limits which DBS Vickers may prescribe or otherwise notify the Customer from time to time with respect to any single securities counter that the Customer may transact in with respect to the Margin Account;
- (c) to take all reasonable steps to obtain and communicate to DBS Vickers all information, and deliver or cause to be delivered to DBS Vickers all documents, with respect to transactions under the Margin Account which may be requested by DBS Vickers or the SGX-ST, CDP, SCCS, MAS or any authority having such right to request for such information to enable DBS Vickers to comply with the Applicable Laws and in any case not later than seven (7) days after being requested in writing by DBS Vickers to do so or such earlier date as the SGX-ST, CDP, SCCS, MAS or any other authority may require;
- (d) to disclose to DBS Vickers if there is any material adverse change in the Customer's business, assets, financial condition, operating environment or management; and
- (e) the fact that all securities transactions in the Margin Account shall be on an immediate or a ready basis and the credit extended under the Margin Account shall not be used to subscribe for new issues of securities (including initial public offers and right issues).

4.2 The Customer acknowledges that in no event is DBS Vickers obliged to accept any Order the Customer may give (for the establishment of a new position) as DBS Vickers may, amongst other things, have its own aggregate limits of exposure to a particular securities counter or aggregate limits to the financing available to DBS Vickers or permitted of DBS Vickers or the Margin Facility DBS Vickers is permitted to engage in, and if DBS Vickers had in good faith inadvertently accepted any of the Customer's Orders which would cause DBS Vickers to be in breach of any of its obligations whether under the law, the rules and bye-laws of SGX-ST or the terms of financing extended to DBS Vickers, the Customer acknowledges that DBS Vickers may in its sole and absolute discretion, take any and all action necessary to rectify such a breach (including but not limited to allocating the Order to a securities trading account in the Customer's name other than the securities trading account designated for the Margin Facility) and the Customer will effect settlement accordingly.

C5. Margin

- 5.1 The Margin deposited by the Customer shall be in the form of cash in Singapore dollars or any other currencies as may be acceptable to DBS Vickers and/or such securities which are acceptable to DBS Vickers at such times and in such amounts as may be required by DBS Vickers.
- 5.2 Deposited Securities may be valued at 100% of the market valuation or be subject to a discount at such other percentage as DBS Vickers may in its sole discretion prescribe from time to time.
- 5.3 The Customer gives DBS Vickers the authority and discretion to sell or dispose of any or all Marginable Securities in any manner in order to meet the Margin Facility margin ratio prescribed by DBS Vickers for compliance by the Customer. In this connection the Customer notes and agrees that:-
- (a) the Customer is not permitted to effect any buy transaction for its Margin Account unless the Equity is not less than 150% (or such percentage as may be prescribed from time to time by DBS Vickers) of the Debit Balance;
 - (b) should the Equity fall below 140% (or such percentage as may be prescribed from time to time by DBS Vickers) of the Debit Balance, DBS Vickers is entitled to request (and the Customer shall comply with any such request) to provide additional collateral to bring the Equity to not less than 140% (or such percentage as may be prescribed from time to time by DBS Vickers) of the Debit Balance within two (2) Market Days (or such period as DBS Vickers may in its discretion determine from time to time) and in the interim the Customer is not permitted to effect any new transactions for its Margin Account except to liquidate or close out outstanding positions;
 - (c) should the Equity fall to 130% and below (or such percentage as may be prescribed from time to time by DBS Vickers) of the Debit Balance, DBS Vickers is entitled (but not obliged) at its absolute discretion and without notice to the Customer to liquidate the Customer's Margin Account (or any part thereof) to bring the Equity to not less than 140% (or such percentage as may be prescribed from time to time by DBS Vickers) of the Debit Balance; and
 - (d) the primary obligation to ensure that the Customer will maintain the Equity at no less than 140% (or such percentage as may be prescribed from time to time by DBS Vickers) of the Debit Balance is on the Customer.
- 5.4 In addition and without prejudice to the other provisions of this Agreement, DBS Vickers shall have the right to require such additional Margin in the Margin Account as and when it deems fit where the purchased Marginable Securities or Deposited Securities carried in the Margin Account are subject to unusually rapid or volatile fluctuations in value, or are deemed not able to be liquidated promptly, or where such purchased Marginable Securities or Deposited Securities do not have an active market, or upon immediate suspension of a counter from trading on the SGX-ST or any other exchanges or for any other reason whatsoever. Any written notice from DBS Vickers stating that any such circumstance has arisen shall be deemed to be a conclusive determination of that event.
- 5.5 Without prejudice to Clause C4.1(a), the Customer acknowledges and agrees that DBS Vickers may make margin calls on the Customer in respect of the Margin Account orally or in writing or in such other manner as DBS Vickers may in its sole and absolute discretion deem appropriate. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the Customer acknowledges and agrees that DBS Vickers may contact the Customer via telephone at any of the telephone numbers stated in the Application Form (or any other telephone numbers as the Customer may notify DBS Vickers in writing from time to time) for the purpose of any margin call and the Customer shall make itself available at such telephone numbers. If DBS Vickers fails to reach the Customer at any such telephone numbers, the Customer shall be deemed to have defaulted on the margin call.

C6. Omnibus account

- 6.1 For any and all cash placed with DBS Vickers as collateral, the Customer acknowledges that DBS Vickers may place the same in an omnibus customer trust account together with cash that DBS Vickers holds for other customers. As such the Customer further acknowledges that it would be administratively and operationally difficult, if not impossible (in view of the constant fluctuation of the aggregate balance in such account), to account separately for each of DBS Vickers' customers the interest due on their cash balance in the omnibus account as interest will be received on a lump sum basis. In any event, it is also acknowledged and accepted that such an exercise would be likely to cost more than any interest earned. In these circumstances, it is a condition of providing the Margin Facility that the Customer waive and relinquish in DBS Vickers' favour all claims for interest that may otherwise accrue with respect to the Customer's said cash placed with DBS Vickers as collateral.
- 6.2 Notwithstanding the foregoing, where DBS Vickers believes it to be appropriate, DBS Vickers may in its sole and absolute discretion pay over to the Customer such part of the interest received by DBS Vickers with respect to the omnibus customer trust account as DBS Vickers may in its sole and absolute discretion deem appropriate.

C7. Withdrawal

- 7.1 For avoidance of doubt, subject to the Customer at all times maintaining the requisite margin ratio, the Customer is permitted, with DBS Vickers' prior consent (but without prejudice to DBS Vickers' first and paramount fixed security interest over securities deposited with it or in its possession) and at its discretion, to withdraw cash or securities from the Margin Account so long as such withdrawal does not result in the Equity falling below 150% (or such percentage as may be prescribed from time to time by DBS Vickers) of the Debit Balance and there is in fact excess cash or securities (as the case may be) in the Margin Account for withdrawal.
- 7.2 For the avoidance of doubt, the Customer is not permitted to withdraw cash from the Margin Account unless there is in fact excess cash in the Margin Account and the withdrawal of such cash does not result in the Equity falling below 150% (or such percentage as may be prescribed from time to time by DBS Vickers) of the Debit Balance.

SECTION D - CUSTODY ACCOUNT

D1. General

The Customer acknowledges and agrees that where the Customer has requested, on the Application Form, DBS Vickers to provide custodial services (the "Custodial Services") or subsequent to the date of the Application Form, the Customer has requested DBS Vickers to provide the Custodial Services, the Customer agrees to comply with the terms and conditions of this Section D which shall apply in addition to all other terms and conditions in the other sections of this Agreement. The Customer further acknowledges and agrees that DBS Vickers shall provide the Custodial Services in respect of such securities of the Customer as DBS Vickers may in its sole discretion accept and receive (the "Custody Securities"). In doing so, the Customer also acknowledges and accepts that nothing in this Section D shall have the effect of constituting DBS Vickers as a fiduciary of the Customer or otherwise with respect to the Custody Securities, any relationship of trustee and beneficiary between DBS Vickers and the Customer, or any further relationship other than as expressly contemplated in this Section D.

D2. Bare Custodial Services

2.1 Unless otherwise agreed, DBS Vickers shall receive and hold in custody the Custody Securities. Subject to the Customer's acknowledgement in any event that DBS Vickers as custodian is not a fiduciary to the Customer or otherwise with respect to the Custody Securities but shall be regarded solely only as a bare custodian and not trustee of the Custody Securities, the duties of DBS Vickers hereunder shall be:

- (a) to hold or procure to be held to its order all documents evidencing ownership of the Custody Securities and identify in its books that all Custody Securities belong to the Customer;
- (b) to procure that all Custody Securities other than bearer securities are registered in the name of (i) DBS Vickers, or such other nominee or nominees as DBS Vickers may appoint in accordance with Clause D3; or (ii) any sub-custodian (or its nominees), where due to the nature of the law or market practice of any relevant jurisdiction, it is in the Customer's best interests or it is not feasible to do otherwise. In these circumstances, the Custody Securities will still be held in such a way that it is readily apparent that the Custody Securities are not the property of DBS Vickers, any sub-custodian or any nominee appointed by DBS Vickers or any sub-custodian (as the case may be). The Custody Securities may be registered collectively with other securities of DBS Vickers' other clients in the same name and where so registered, the Customer's entitlements under the Custody Securities may not be identifiable by separate certificates or other physical documents of title or equivalent electronic records (although DBS Vickers and/or its delegate(s) will maintain records such that it will be readily apparent the degree of the Customer's interest in the commingled securities so collectively held but on the express understanding and agreement of the Customer that where such commingling and aggregation of the Custody Securities of the Customer and the securities of other persons result in entitlements to any dividends, interest and other monies payable in respect of the Custody Securities and all other rights, benefits and proceeds in respect of or derived from the same (whether by way of redemption, bonus, preference, option, substitution, conversion or otherwise) (the "Related Assets") which otherwise without such commingling or aggregation would not have accrued to the Custody Securities (the "Bonus Related Assets"), DBS Vickers has full discretion as to the allotment of such Bonus Related Assets as amongst its clients, including the Customer as it deems fit). Should DBS Vickers, any sub-custodian or, as the case may be, its nominee default, any shortfall in the securities registered in that name may be shared pro rata among all clients of DBS Vickers whose securities are so registered;

- (c) to hold or procure that there are held in safe custody all Custody Securities that are bearer securities and ensure that such Custody Securities are held in such a manner that it is readily apparent that they are not the property of DBS Vickers or any sub-custodian. Such Custody Securities shall be segregated by DBS Vickers or any sub-custodian (as the case may be) from all property of DBS Vickers or sub-custodian and shall be identified as held by DBS Vickers or sub-custodian for the account of the Customer. Where any Custody Securities are in uncertificated form, or otherwise transferable by book-entry transfer, DBS Vickers may use the services of any securities depository, on such terms as it may think fit, for the purpose of the holding and transfer of such Custody Securities (or entitlements thereto);
- (d) except to the extent permitted or not prohibited by the Securities and Futures Act (Cap. 289) or its regulations (including but not limited to Regulation 26 of the Securities and Futures (Licensing and Conduct of Business) Regulations), to hold and/or procure that any sub-custodian holds securities, if registered in the same name as investments of DBS Vickers or the sub-custodian, in an account designated separately from that used for investments of DBS Vickers or sub-custodian (as the case may be);
- (e) on receipt of the Customer's instructions or with the Customer's authority to make or accept delivery of the Custody Securities which have been sold, purchased, transferred or otherwise acquired or lent or disposed of by the Customer or its agent, to effect such acceptance or delivery in accordance with the normal practice for transactions of the type concerned;
- (f) to use its reasonable endeavours to collect and receive Related Assets including income and other payments due with respect to the Custody Securities provided that the Customer acknowledges and accepts that DBS Vickers (whether directly or through any delegate or agent) shall have no duty or responsibility but is entitled, if it so chooses to:
 - (i) exercise or discharge any obligations conferred or imposed by reason of DBS Vickers' holding of the Custody Securities or to investigate, participate or take any affirmative action in connection therewith or otherwise;
 - (ii) send or give notice of any proxy form or other document which DBS Vickers may receive in respect of the Custody Securities;
 - (iii) recognise any claim in the nature of a trust or equitable claim by anyone other than the Customer in respect of the Custody Securities or any part thereof; or
 - (iv) otherwise make any notification to the Customer in respect of the Custody Securities, or take any other action in relation to the Custody Securities;
- (g) to credit, in such manner as the Customer shall instruct, all income and other payments received by DBS Vickers under paragraph (f) of this Clause D2.1;
- (h) to sign, execute and/or complete such documents, certificates or forms from time to time required for fiscal and taxation purposes in connection with the collection of income from the Custody Securities including bonds and note coupons; and
 - (i) to keep or (to the extent reasonably practicable) procure there to be kept by any sub-custodian, or any nominee appointed by DBS Vickers (as the case may be), such books, records and statements, in retrievable form, as may be necessary to provide an adequate record of all Custody Securities held and transactions carried out by or on behalf of the Customer.

- 2.2 DBS Vickers may refuse to act or continue to act as custodian in relation to any Custody Securities it deems unsuitable to be held hereunder without giving any reason or being liable for any loss thereby occasioned.

D3. Nominees/Delegates

DBS Vickers is authorised to utilise one or more nominee(s) or sub-custodians for the purpose of providing the Custodial Services. In the event that a nominee is being used, the Customer is deemed to have contracted as principal with such nominee. DBS Vickers may utilise the services of a foreign custodian as nominee or sub-custodian where it deems this to be necessary, and the Customer hereby expressly consents to such utilisation. Where the Custody Securities are held by a nominee or sub-custodian, DBS Vickers shall separately agree in writing the requirements as may be required under Applicable Laws but otherwise the Customer acknowledges and accepts that different settlement, legal and regulatory requirements and different practices relating to the segregation of those Custody Securities may apply. In addition, DBS Vickers and any nominee, sub-custodian, agent or delegate may deposit the Custody Securities with, and hold the Custody Securities in, any centralised securities depository, clearing house or securities depository agencies on such terms as such systems customarily operate. The Customer agrees that where the context permits, any reference to DBS Vickers herein (including this Clause D3) shall also include a reference to its nominee, sub-custodian and/or any other person appointed by DBS Vickers in accordance with this Clause D3.

D4. Fees and Charges

- 4.1 In consideration of DBS Vickers' provision of the Custodial Services, the Customer hereby agrees to pay to DBS Vickers such fees (exclusive of any goods and services tax or other relevant tax) as may be determined by DBS Vickers and notified by DBS Vickers to the Customer.
- 4.2 The Customer shall, on demand, pay to or reimburse (or shall procure payment to or reimbursement of) DBS Vickers for all expenses (including without limitation, management or supervisory fees, agents' and other adviser's fees, disbursements and operating expenses) incurred by DBS Vickers, its nominees, sub-custodians or agents in connection with:
- (a) the performance by DBS Vickers of its obligations hereunder; and
 - (b) the enforcement or preservation by DBS Vickers of its rights hereunder, together with any applicable goods and services tax or other relevant tax.
- 4.3 The Customer hereby authorises DBS Vickers, without prior notice to the Customer, to debit any of the Customer's Account(s) with, and/or (without prejudice to the generality of Clause A15) to set-off against any Related Assets, all amounts due or which may become owing by the Customer to DBS Vickers hereunder, together with any applicable goods and services tax or other relevant tax.

D5. Delivery of Custody Securities

All Custody Securities delivered or to be delivered to DBS Vickers from time to time for the purposes of this Section D must be in the required or regular form in board lots and in good delivery order, or must be transferred and deposited into such account as DBS Vickers shall direct. Where applicable, all unmatured coupons and duly executed transfers must be attached thereto.

D6. Representations and Warranties

The Customer hereby warrants and undertakes to DBS Vickers that:

- (a) the Customer is the beneficial owner of the Custody Securities or has authority from the true owner to deal with such Custody Securities;
- (b) the Custody Securities are fully paid for, in the required or regular form and in good delivery order; and
- (c) there is no defect in title, security interest or encumbrance affecting the Custody Securities.

D7. Custodial Duties and Powers

DBS Vickers shall in addition to the powers set out in Clause D2.1(f) be entitled to do, subject and on receipt of the Customer's instructions to the contrary, any other act or refrain from doing any other act unless (as the case may be) prohibited or required by law or regulation, in relation to any Custody Securities, which under the terms of the Customer's agreement with DBS Vickers, DBS Vickers is not specifically (as the case may be) either prohibited or required to do. Without prejudice to the foregoing the Customer hereby specifically instructs DBS Vickers that, until it receives written instructions to the contrary, whenever the Customer purchases securities through it, and the sums standing to the credit of the Account in which the Custody Securities are held are sufficient to satisfy the purchase price of the Custody Securities purchased, DBS Vickers is to withdraw from such Account such sum as is equal to the purchase price and appropriate such sum to DBS Vickers in satisfaction of the Customer's obligation to pay the purchase price, or where the shares are contra sold, to use such sums for any contra losses incurred (if any). Also without prejudice to any of the foregoing, any amount payable by the Customer in respect of the Custodial Services shall be payable to DBS Vickers or its nominees, sub-custodians or agents (as the case may be) on demand and may be deducted from the Custody Securities or the said Account without prior notice to the Customer.

D8. Exclusion of Liability

8.1 DBS Vickers shall not be liable for any Loss suffered or incurred by the Customer which arises from and/or in connection with:-

- (a) the manner in which DBS Vickers holds the Custody Securities hereunder or deals with monies or Related Assets received or intended to be received in connection herewith;
- (b) the loss, theft or destruction of, or any damage to, any of the Custody Securities or certificates relating thereto; or
- (c) any act or omission of DBS Vickers, or the performance or non-performance of DBS Vickers' duties hereunder, except insofar as the same arises as a result of fraud and/or wilful default of DBS Vickers.
- (d) any corporate action(s) which the Customer participates in; or
- (e) any corporate action(s) which the Customer is unable to participate in.

8.2 While DBS Vickers will use reasonable care in the selection of any nominee, sub-custodian, agent or delegate, DBS Vickers shall not be liable for any Loss which arises from and/or in connection with:

- (a) the insolvency of any sub-custodian or nominee; or
- (b) any act or omission of any sub-custodian or nominee, unless in the case of (a), the relevant sub-custodian or nominee is a branch or subsidiary of DBS Vickers and, in the case of (b) above, only to the extent that the same arises as a result of the fraud or wilful default of the relevant sub-custodian or nominee.

- 8.3 DBS Vickers shall not be liable for any act, omission or insolvency of any entity providing central depository, clearing and/or settlement facilities.
- 8.4 The Customer acknowledges and agrees that DBS Vickers shall be under no duty to supervise compliance by the Customer with any restrictions on the investment powers of the Customer.
- 8.5 DBS Vickers shall not be liable or have any responsibility to the Customer for any Loss incurred or suffered by the Customer if the performance of DBS Vickers' obligations is interrupted, delayed or prevented in any manner whatsoever including but not limited to by any Force Majeure Event.

D9. Statements and Information

- 9.1 DBS Vickers shall provide or procure the provision to the Customer on a best efforts basis with such reports and statements concerning the Custody Securities and at such intervals as agreed between them from time to time.
- 9.2 DBS Vickers may, on the request of the Customer and subject to payment by the Customer of such fee as may be determined by DBS Vickers and notified by DBS Vickers to the Customer, furnish to the Customer such information in respect of the Custody Securities as the Customer may reasonably request.

D10. Return of Custody Securities

The Customer shall not have any right to specific securities custodised with or through DBS Vickers, but will be entitled, subject to these terms and conditions, to delivery by DBS Vickers of securities of the same class, denomination and nominal amount, and which rank pari passu with those accepted by DBS Vickers as being the Custody Securities, subject always to any capital reorganisation or share exchange which may have occurred. Such delivery may be to the Customer or any specified third party.

D11. Authorisation

In addition and without prejudice to the foregoing, DBS Vickers is authorised (but not obliged), either by itself, through a nominee (if so, subject to Clause D3 above) or otherwise, and whether in Singapore or elsewhere to do any lawful act or thing which in the discretion of DBS Vickers is necessary to preserve the integrity of the Custody Securities and/or any Account and/or to protect the reasonable interests of the Customer and/or DBS Vickers.

D12. Customer Primarily Liable

Notwithstanding that the Customer may as between itself and a third party be effecting transactions on and/or in respect of any part or all of the Custody Securities for and on behalf of such third party, as between the Customer and DBS Vickers, the Customer shall be deemed to be, and is, transacting as sole principal. The Customer acknowledges, undertakes and agrees to be always primarily liable for such transactions in all or part of the Custody Securities.

D13. Orders/Instructions

- 13.1 DBS Vickers need only act on instructions (oral or otherwise) from the Customer in respect of any Account or any part or all of the Custody Securities. DBS Vickers shall not be required to act in accordance with any instruction from the Customer which purports to dispose of or deal with any securities or other property which are in fact not held in any Account and/or which are not in fact the Custody Securities.

- 13.2 DBS Vickers shall only be required to act on or effect any instruction from the Customer within a reasonable time. For the avoidance of doubt, in the event that the Customer wishes to withdraw any part or all of the Custody Securities, the Customer shall give at least seven (7) days' notice to DBS Vickers prior to such withdrawal.
- 13.3 Any instructions (oral or otherwise) purported to be given by any person other than the Customer, need not be acted on by DBS Vickers but DBS Vickers is authorised to act on any and all such instructions which DBS Vickers in good faith has reason to believe is from the Customer as soon as such instructions have been received by DBS Vickers without requiring written confirmation thereof. DBS Vickers shall not be liable for any loss, damage, cost, charge and expense incurred by the Customer as a result of DBS Vickers so acting.

D14. Contra Losses

The Customer agrees that

- (a) no Custody Securities may be withdrawn if there are any contra losses outstanding; and
- (b) if any contra loss is not paid within such time as DBS Vickers may specify, DBS Vickers is entitled to sell such of the Custody Securities as may be necessary to reimburse DBS Vickers of such contra loss.

SECTION E - SECURITIES BORROWING AND LENDING

E1. The Customer acknowledges and agrees that where the Customer has requested, on the Application Form, to borrow securities through the SBL Account with DBS Vickers inter alia for purposes of delivery to settle a proposed sale on SGX-ST or subsequent to the date of the Application Form, the Customer has requested to borrow securities through the SBL Account with DBS Vickers, the Customer agrees to comply with the terms and conditions in this Section E which shall apply in addition to all other terms and conditions in the other sections of this Agreement and all other documents pertaining to the SBL Account. For this purpose, the Customer requests that DBS Vickers opens and maintains for the Customer a SBL Account. The Customer represents and warrants that it is eligible to apply for and open a SBL Account, based on the criteria determined from time to time by DBS Vickers. DBS Vickers agrees to open and maintain the SBL Account. Subject to the terms and conditions herein, on any Market Day during DBS Vickers' business hours and on each occasion when the Customer wishes to borrow securities to meet its obligations for a proposed sale on the SGX-ST, the Customer shall submit to DBS Vickers a request (the "Borrowing Request") to borrow securities (as specified in the Borrowing Request) for the purposes of settling the proposed sale on the SGX-ST. DBS Vickers shall be entitled to determine from time to time and at its absolute discretion such minimum limits and/or other criteria for a Borrowing Request and/or loan of securities, and the Customer agrees to comply with such minimum limits and/or other criteria. Such Borrowing Request may be made by a Customer through any means of communication and agents (including the Customer's Trading Representative). The Customer shall not be entitled to revoke such Borrowing Request and DBS Vickers shall be entitled to treat the Borrowing Request as irrevocable. The Customer agrees that DBS Vickers is not obliged to accept and act upon a Borrowing Request and may refuse at any time and at its absolute discretion to do so or to continue doing so without providing any reason. The Customer agrees that DBS Vickers may from time to time and at its discretion establish and review borrowing and position limits for the Customer, and the Customer agrees to comply with, and not to exceed, such limits.

- E2. DBS Vickers will notify the Customer whether the securities are available for borrowing and a notification that such securities are available for borrowing shall be deemed to be DBS Vickers' acceptance of a Borrowing Request. The Customer shall not be entitled to borrow securities from DBS Vickers to settle a sale transaction until DBS Vickers has notified the Customer that the securities are available for borrowing. In the event that the Customer effects a sale transaction or instructs its Trading Representative to effect a sale transaction prior to DBS Vickers notifying the Customer that securities are available for borrowing, none of DBS Vickers or the Customer's Trading Representative shall be responsible or liable for any Loss resulting from, in relation to or in connection with such sale transaction and any failure of the Customer to settle such sale transaction (including without limitation any Loss resulting from, in relation to or in connection with a buying-in).
- E3. The Customer shall not be entitled to take delivery of or withdraw the SBL Securities from the SBL Account. The SBL Securities shall be deemed to have been borrowed by the Customer from DBS Vickers on the date of DBS Vickers' acceptance of the Customer's Borrowing Request regardless of the actual date the SBL Securities are actually delivered by DBS Vickers to settle the Customer's sale transaction (the "SBL Sale"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Customer expressly acknowledges and agrees that pending such delivery, no title to the SBL Securities will pass from DBS Vickers. In this connection, the Customer further acknowledges and agrees that all proceeds being the contract value for the SBL Sale shall be received by DBS Vickers and shall be deposited and shall form part of the SBL Collateral (defined in Clause E8.1 below).
- E4. Each loan of SBL Securities will be of such duration as may be agreed between the Customer and DBS Vickers, subject to a minimum loan period of seven (7) days (or such other minimum loan period as DBS Vickers may in its discretion determine from time to time). DBS Vickers shall be entitled at any time to terminate any loan of SBL Securities and to call for the re-delivery of Equivalent Securities by giving at least two (2) Market Days' notice (or such period as DBS Vickers may in its discretion determine from time to time) to the Customer. The Customer shall re-deliver the Equivalent Securities (as defined below) to DBS Vickers by the time and in such manner as specified by DBS Vickers in DBS Vickers' notice. "Equivalent Securities" means securities of an identical type, nominal value, description and amount (including all substitutions therefor, all additions and accretions thereto and all dividends, options and other rights arising therefrom and attaching thereto) as any SBL Securities and includes any certificates and other documents of or evidencing title thereto and transfer thereof.
- E5. Subject to Clause E4, the Customer may return Equivalent Securities in satisfaction of any, or any part of any, loan of SBL Securities at any time by notifying DBS Vickers and re-delivering such securities in such manner as stipulated by DBS Vickers. Subject to Clauses E4, E6 and E10, the Customer shall be entitled to roll over a borrowing for a further period of time as may be agreed between the Customer and DBS Vickers, by giving DBS Vickers at least three (3) market days' prior notice of such roll over in return for the payment of a roll-over fee to be determined from time to time by DBS Vickers in its absolute discretion. The Customer may make a request for a roll-over through any means of communication and agents (including the Customer's Trading Representative).

E6. In the event that the SBL Securities are proposed to be converted, subdivided, consolidated, redeemed, made the subject of a takeover, capitalisation issue, rights issue or event similar to the foregoing, or in the event that dividends, interest or other distributions are proposed to be paid or made on the SBL Securities, the Customer shall return the SBL Securities prior to the date or period (the "Record Date or Period") on which the books of the issuer of the SBL Securities are closed for the purposes of determining holders thereof or, as the case may be, entitlements of holders to rights, dividends or other distributions. Unless otherwise separately agreed with DBS Vickers and on such terms as may be imposed by DBS Vickers, the Customer shall not, for any period which extends over any relevant Record Date or Period, be entitled to borrow any securities or roll over any borrowing of securities which are proposed to be converted, subdivided, consolidated, redeemed, made the subject of a takeover, capitalisation issue, rights issue or event similar to the foregoing, or for which dividends, interest or other distributions are proposed to be paid or made. In the event that the Customer borrows SBL Securities for a period which extends over a Record Date or Period for which any income (including without limitation, any interest, dividend or other distribution of any kind whatsoever with respect to the SBL Securities) is payable with respect to such SBL Securities, the Customer shall pay to DBS Vickers such cash amount equivalent to the amount of the relevant income together with an amount equivalent to any deduction, withholding or payment for or on account of tax made by the relevant issuer of SBL Securities (or on its behalf) in respect of such income together with an amount equal to any other tax credit associated with such income.

E7. The Customer agrees to pay DBS Vickers such commissions, interest, charges and fees (including without limitation, borrowing and extension fees) for its services pursuant to any loan of SBL Securities as may be notified by DBS Vickers from time to time. The borrowing and extension fees shall be payable in advance and DBS Vickers shall be entitled to deduct or withdraw the same from the cash collateral component of the SBL Collateral. The Customer shall pay applicable exchange, transfer or clearing fees or charges, any tax imposed by any competent authority and any other costs and expenses incurred by DBS Vickers in connection with a loan of SBL Securities.

E8. Subject to any Applicable Law, the Customer shall at all times ensure that it provides collateral of not less than 150% of the value (or such other value as may be stipulated from time to time by DBS Vickers or in any Applicable Law) of the securities borrowed by the Customer from time to time and which the Customer has yet to return. In addition, the Customer agrees with DBS Vickers to abide by the following collateral provision requirements:-

Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Agreement as may be revised from time to time or the terms of any other collateral or charge documentation with respect to the Customer's securities and other property (collectively the "Terms"), the Customer agrees that for the purposes of the Customer's borrowing of securities:-

8.1 the Customer will provide to DBS Vickers collateral and/or security for any and all borrowings of the Customer (the "SBL Collateral") in such form as DBS Vickers shall at its absolute discretion determine from time to time (whether by way of a first and paramount fixed charge and/or general lien and/or absolute title transfer and/or otherwise) as security firstly for the obligations of the Customer with respect to the Customer's borrowings of securities and secondly for all the Customer's other obligations from time to time owing or due to DBS Vickers howsoever arising;

- 8.2 unless the Customer shall have executed such collateral documents as may be required by DBS Vickers to ensure that DBS Vickers will have absolute title in and/or a valid and enforceable first and subsidiary security right over the SBL Collateral as intended under Clause E8.1 above, the terms governing DBS Vickers' rights with respect to the SBL Collateral shall insofar as the same are not contrary to the rights conferred under this Agreement include mutatis mutandis the terms of DBS Vickers' Memorandum;
- 8.3 that DBS Vickers may commingle and hold any or all of the SBL Collateral together with the securities and/or money that DBS Vickers may hold for its other Customers whether as collateral or otherwise and as such DBS Vickers shall not be obliged with respect to any of the Customers' securities or other property to retain the same in its possession or control (being entitled to treat all of the same as fungibles) and DBS Vickers shall be entitled to deal with (including but not limited to on-lending and creation of security over) the SBL Collateral (whether cash or securities) as it deems fit and at its absolute discretion. The Customer shall not be entitled to any compensation in connection with such dealing and the Customer agrees that DBS Vickers is the sole beneficiary of any fee or commission that DBS Vickers may earn from any and all such dealings. As such the Customer further agrees that:-
- (a) in relation to the preceding the Customer also acknowledges that it would be administratively and operationally difficult, if not impossible (in view of the constant ebb and flow of the aggregate balance in such account) to account separately for each of DBS Vickers' Customers the interest due on their fluctuating cash balances being part of a larger pool of money since interest will be received on a lump sum basis. The Customer further acknowledges and accepts that such an exercise would be likely to cost more than any interest earned. In the circumstances, the Customer agrees that it is a material condition that the Customer waives and relinquishes in DBS Vickers' favour all claims for interest that might otherwise accrue with respect to any cash component of the SBL Collateral;
 - (b) DBS Vickers' only obligation in respect of the SBL Collateral (whether or not such SBL Collateral has been dealt with by DBS Vickers) is, subject to the Customer having discharged all the Customer's existing obligations and properly terminated the Customer's SBL Account with DBS Vickers and subject otherwise to DBS Vickers' rights under this Agreement (including any right of interim liquidation or sale of the Customer's SBL Collateral) to return to the Customer, where the SBL Collateral provided is in the form of securities, like securities of equivalent amount or their cash value, and where the SBL Collateral provided is in the form of cash, such cash amount. As such the Customer also agrees that notwithstanding any contrary provision agreed between the Customer and DBS Vickers that in the event of the Customer's insolvency:-
 - (i) DBS Vickers has the right at its option to convert any obligation DBS Vickers may otherwise have to return the Customer securities into an obligation instead to pay the aggregate market value for the same; and
 - (ii) subject such converted payment obligation to DBS Vickers' general right of set-off (in addition to any other rights of set-off and/or consolidation of accounts or obligations DBS Vickers may have at law or in contract);

- (c) DBS Vickers is entitled at any time, without prior notice or restriction, to appropriate the whole or any part of the SBL Collateral held in the discharge of any indebtedness of the Customer to DBS Vickers whether under this Agreement or otherwise and, for the purposes of so doing, may convert such sums (or any part of them) into any currency other than that in which they are held. The rates used will be at the sole discretion of DBS Vickers but will be the market rates for the amounts so converted. Any dividends or interest received in respect of the SBL Collateral shall form part of the SBL Collateral;

8.4 the initial value of the collateral required to be placed as SBL Collateral with DBS Vickers by the Customer with respect to any borrowing of SBL Securities by the Customer shall be of a value of not less than 150% of the aggregate value of all SBL Securities borrowed and not returned (the "Aggregate SBL Securities Value") by the Customer.

Without prejudice to the foregoing, the Customer has also noted and agreed that:-

- (a) in the event that the value of the SBL Collateral falls below 140% but remains higher than 130% of the Aggregate SBL Securities Value, DBS Vickers is entitled to request (and the Customer shall comply with any such request) to provide additional collateral to bring the value of the SBL Collateral to not less than 150% of the Aggregate SBL Securities Value and in the interim the Customer is not permitted to effect any new borrowings of securities;
- (b) in the event that the value of the SBL Collateral falls below 130% of the Aggregate SBL Securities Value, DBS Vickers is entitled (but not obliged) at DBS Vickers' absolute discretion and without notice to the Customer to demand the immediate return of the SBL Securities borrowed and/or realise the SBL Collateral (or any part thereof) and apply the proceeds therefrom to purchase such amounts of securities equivalent to the SBL Securities and appropriate the same as securities returned by the Customer to bring the value of the SBL Collateral to not less than 150% of the Aggregate SBL Securities Value; and
- (c) DBS Vickers is entitled at any time to change any of the percentages stated above and in Clauses E8.6(b) and E10 and its determination of the value of any component of the SBL Collateral other than cash shall be final and determinative as between the Customer and DBS Vickers so long as made in good faith. In this connection, the Customer recognises and accepts that depending on the quality of the securities provided as SBL Collateral a larger deduction or hair-cut for valuation process will be made by DBS Vickers;

8.5 the Customer undertakes that all SBL Collateral deposited or provided by the Customer shall be in the form of cash, Government securities, marginable securities (as defined in Regulation 45 of the Securities and Futures (Licensing and Conduct of Business Regulations) and such other acceptable securities/stock and such other instruments as DBS Vickers may from time to time prescribe; and

8.6 the Customer undertakes that if it transacts a purchase of securities in the SBL Account, it may, by giving to DBS Vickers at least two (2) market days' notice request that monies comprising part of the SBL Collateral be released in payment for the purchased securities, and the Customer agrees that if DBS Vickers so releases the monies, the purchased securities shall substitute the released monies as SBL Collateral and shall become part of the SBL Collateral. In each such case the Customer further acknowledges that the securities to be so purchased must be of securities acceptable to DBS Vickers for the purposes of the SBL Collateral and be either:-

- (a) of at least equivalent value as the money to be drawn out of the SBL Collateral to pay for the securities purchased; or
- (b) of a value which taken together with the rest of the SBL Collateral (after the relevant monies are released and applied towards payment for the securities purchased) is at least 150% of the Aggregate SBL Securities Value.

E9. The Customer shall take such action, and shall complete and execute any and all documentation required, to ensure that DBS Vickers shall have absolute title in any and all the SBL Collateral and/or (as the case may be) a first and paramount lien (being in the nature of a general lien) and/or security interest over any and all the SBL Collateral.

E10. For avoidance of doubt, subject to the Customer at all times maintaining the requisite minimum in value of SBL Collateral relative to the Aggregate SBL Securities Value, the Customer is permitted, with DBS Vickers' prior consent (but without prejudice to DBS Vickers' title to, and/or as the case may be, first and paramount fixed security interest over, the SBL Collateral with or in DBS Vickers' possession) and at DBS Vickers' discretion, to withdraw cash from the Customer's SBL Account so long as such withdrawal does not result in the value of the remaining SBL Collateral being less than 150% of the Aggregate SBL Securities Value and so long as there is excess cash comprising the SBL Collateral and not otherwise earmarked to a Customer's request for a borrowing or release to satisfy a pending purchase transaction effected through DBS Vickers pursuant to Clause E8.6.

E11. The Customer represents and warrants, as at the date of its application for a SBL Account and on each date that the Customer delivers a Borrowing Request to DBS Vickers, that:-

- 11.1 all information and particulars stated by the Customer in, or provided by the Customer to DBS Vickers for the purpose of, the Borrowing Request are true and accurate and will continue to be true and accurate for the foreseeable future. If any such information or particulars ceases to be true or accurate, the Customer undertakes to promptly inform DBS Vickers;
- 11.2 the Customer is acting for his own account and will be liable as a principal in respect of all transactions entered into hereunder; and
- 11.3 by entering into and performing the transactions contemplated hereunder, the Customer will not violate any laws or regulations applicable to the Customer.

E12. Each of the following events shall constitute an event of default under this Section E:-

- 12.1 the Customer fails to re-deliver all or any of the Equivalent Securities to DBS Vickers in accordance with Clause E4;
- 12.2 any representation or warranty given or made or deemed to be made by the Customer under Clause E11 is or proves to have been untrue or inaccurate in any respect;
- 12.3 the Customer fails to comply with any of its obligations under this Section E or any transaction effected pursuant to this Section E; or
- 12.4 any "Default" occurs or is deemed to occur under Clause A9.

If an event of default under this Section E occurs, the Customer shall immediately re-deliver the Equivalent Securities to DBS Vickers. In the event that the Customer does not so re-deliver the Equivalent Securities or only re-delivers a portion of Equivalent Securities, the Customer shall indemnify DBS Vickers for and against any and all Losses which may be suffered or incurred by it in connection with, arising out of or in relation to such non-delivery, including but not limited to the consideration paid to purchase a like amount of such securities, brokerage fees, commissions, clearing fees and costs and expenses incurred as a result of a buy-in.

- E13. The Customer also acknowledges and agrees that DBS Vickers has the right at any time and from time to time to vary the terms for the borrowing or continued borrowing of securities by three (3) days' notice to the Customer.
- E14. In this Section E, expressions such as “borrow”, “lend” and “re-deliver” reflect terminology used in the market for transactions provided for herein, on the understanding that title to SBL Securities “borrowed” or “lent” under a loan shall pass or be deemed to have passed from DBS Vickers as lender to the Customer as borrower, and in effecting re-delivery of Equivalent Securities to DBS Vickers, title to Equivalent Securities must pass to DBS Vickers. In respect of re-delivery of the Equivalent Securities, the Customer shall execute and do all such assurances, acts and things as may be necessary or desirable to permit DBS Vickers to take, transfer and enjoy the full benefit of the Equivalent Securities.

SCHEDULE - RISK DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Customers who trade or transact (in equities, equity linked instruments and/or other financial instruments, and/or structured transactions involving financial instruments) with or through DBS Vickers Securities (Singapore) Pte Ltd (the “Company”) should be aware of the risks which may be involved in such trading. You should not enter into such a transaction unless you fully understand:-

- (a) the nature and fundamentals of the transaction and the market underlying such transaction;
- (b) the legal terms and conditions of the documentation for such transaction;
- (c) the extent of the economic risk to which you are exposed as a result of such transaction (and determine that such risk is suitable for you in light of your specific experience in relation to the specific transaction and your financial objectives, circumstances and resources);
- (d) the income tax treatment and the accounting treatment of such transaction (which can be complex);
- (e) the regulatory treatment of such transaction; and
- (f) the nature and scope of the relationship between yourself and the Company with respect of such transaction undertaken by you.

The objective of this statement is to explain to you, briefly, the nature of the transactions prior to your undertaking of such transactions. In particular, you must be aware that the associated risk of loss in trading transactions or contracts can be substantial.

HOWEVER, THIS NOTICE DOES NOT PURPORT TO DISCLOSE OR DISCUSS ALL OF THE RISKS AND OTHER SIGNIFICANT ASPECTS OF ANY TRANSACTION. YOU SHOULD THEREFORE CONSULT WITH YOUR OWN LEGAL, TAX AND FINANCIAL ADVISERS BEFORE ENTERING INTO ANY PARTICULAR TRANSACTION. IT IS IMPORTANT FOR YOU TO DETERMINE WHETHER ANY TRANSACTION IS SUITABLE FOR YOUR OPERATIONS, BUSINESS AND ORGANISATION, AND YOU SHOULD BE AWARE THAT THIS IS YOUR SOLE RESPONSIBILITY.

In considering whether to trade or enter into any transaction, you should be aware of the following:-

1. CONTRACTUAL TERMS: You have the responsibility to fully understand the terms and conditions of the transactions to be undertaken, including, without limitation:-
 - (a) the terms as to price, term, expiration dates, restrictions on exercising an option and other terms material to the transaction;
 - (b) any terms describing risk factors, such as volatility, liquidity, and so on;

- (c) the circumstances under which you may become obliged to make or take delivery of the underlying interest of a transaction; and
- (d) the legal risks surrounding the transaction, including but not limited to the circumstances under which the transaction may be illegal, resulting in it being void and unenforceable. The Company may expect you to bear such risks.

You should therefore familiarise yourself with the terms and conditions of any agreement, contract or confirmation that you may enter into with the Company. You must fully understand your rights and obligations under that agreement, contract or confirmation.

2. MARKET FORCES: Your payments or receipts under a transaction will be linked to changes in the particular financial market or markets to which the transaction is linked, and you will be exposed to price, currency exchange, interest rate or other volatility in that market or markets. You may sustain substantial losses on the contract, trade, product or financial investment if the market conditions move against your positions. It is in your interest to fully understand the impact of market movements, in particular the extent of profit/loss you would be exposed to when there is an upward or downward movement in the relevant rates, and the extent of loss if you have to liquidate a position if market conditions move against you. Your position may be liquidated at a loss, and you will be liable for any resulting deficit in your account with the Company.

The Company may supply you with a sensitivity analysis, and if this is supplied, you would be well advised to familiarise yourself with it. However, the Company is not obliged, nor will it be obliged, to supply you with such a sensitivity analysis.

Under certain market conditions you may find it difficult or impossible to liquidate a position, to assess a fair price or assess risk exposure. This can happen, for example, where the market for a transaction is illiquid or where there is a failure in electronic or telecommunications systems, and where there is the occurrence of an event commonly known as “force majeure” (which shall include without limitation, any form of restriction, moratorium or suspension on trading imposed by an exchange, market or other authority regulating trading in the transactions). Placing contingent orders, such as “stop-loss” or “stop-limit” orders, will not necessarily limit your losses to the intended amounts, as it may be impossible to execute such orders under certain market conditions. Because the prices and characteristics of over-the-counter transactions are individually negotiated and there is no central source for obtaining prices, there are inefficiencies in transaction pricing. We consequently cannot and do not warrant that our prices or the prices we secure for you for such transactions are or will at any time be the best price available to you. We may make a profit from a transaction with you no matter what result the transaction has from your point of view.

An over-the-counter transaction generally cannot be assigned or transferred without the consent of the other party. The Company is not obliged to repurchase a transaction from you. Because transactions are customised and not fungible, engaging in a transaction with another dealer to offset a transaction you have entered into with the Company will not automatically close out those positions (as would be true in the case of equivalent exchange-traded futures and options) and will not necessarily function as a perfect hedge.

You should be aware that if you trade through or on an electronic system, you will be exposed to the risks of any defect, deficiency or malfunction in, and/or any breakdown, disruption or failure of, any telecommunications, computer or other electronic equipment or system associated with such electronic system. This may result in the transaction not being executed according to your instructions or not executed at all. The methods and risks of trading on each electronic system may also differ.

Transactions on markets in other jurisdictions, including markets formally linked to a domestic market, may expose you to additional risk. Such markets may be subject to regulation that may offer different or diminished investor protection. Before you trade, you should enquire about any rules relevant to your particular transactions. Your local regulatory authority will be unable to compel the enforcement of the rules of regulatory authorities or markets in other jurisdictions where your transactions have been effected.

3. “MARGIN” OR LEVERAGED TRANSACTIONS: The high degree of leverage that is often obtainable in trading can work against you as well as for you due to fluctuating market conditions. Trading in leveraged transactions can lead to large losses as well as gains in response to a small market movement. We would like to explain to you that, in some cases, while the amount of the initial margin deposit may be small relative to the value of the transactions, a relatively small market movement would have a proportionately larger impact on the funds deposited with the Company as margin. Again, this could work for or against you.

If the market moves against you, you may not only sustain a total loss of your initial margin deposit and any additional funds deposited with the Company to maintain your position, but you may also incur further liability to the Company or sustain further or additional losses. You may be called upon to “top-up” your margin by substantial amounts at short notice to maintain your position, failing which the Company may have to liquidate your position at a loss and you would be liable for any resulting loss. If the amount is still not adequate to meet your obligations to the Company, you should be aware that you would be liable to the Company for the difference. Accordingly, you should not commit yourself to any transaction which is beyond your means.

4. RISKS ON OPTIONS TRADING: Transactions in options involve a high degree of risk. Option transactions are not suitable for many members of the public. Such transactions should be entered into only by persons who have read, understood and familiarised themselves with the type of options, style of exercise, the nature and extent of rights and obligations and the associated risks. We would like to highlight to you that exercising any option results either in a cash settlement, or in the acquisition or delivery of the underlying contract.

A person should not purchase any option unless he is able to sustain a total loss of the premium and transaction costs of purchasing the option. Under certain adverse market conditions when the market moves against an option position, the purchased option can expire worthless. In such circumstances, the customer would suffer a total loss of the investment which would consist of the option premium and the transaction costs. A person who purchases an option should be aware that in order to realise any value from the option, it will be necessary either to offset the option position or to exercise the option. The purchaser of an option should be aware that some option contracts may provide only a limited period of time for exercise of the option, and some option contracts may provide for the exercise of the option on a specified or stipulated date.

The risks associated with selling (“writing” or “granting”) an option may be generally greater than purchasing an option. It is important for you to understand the risks that you, as an options seller, would be exposed to if the purchaser exercises the option, and your obligations to either settle the option in cash, or acquire or deliver the underlying contract. If the option is “covered” by a corresponding position in the underlying contract or another option, the risk may be reduced. Conversely, if the option is not covered, then the possible loss will be unlimited.

An option customer should carefully calculate the price which the underlying contract would have to reach for the option position to become profitable. This price would include amounts by which the underlying contract would have to rise above or fall below the strike price to cover the sum of the premium and all other costs incurred in entering into and exercising or closing the option position.

5. STRUCTURED TRANSACTIONS: Where a transaction is “structured” or made up of several instruments, you should be aware that there is risk associated with each instrument evaluated separately and the risk of the transaction evaluated as a whole. Therefore your assessment of the transaction should consider the individual instruments and the transaction as a whole.

Certain transactions may be high risk transactions and the net outcome will depend on the performance of underlying reference obligations, assets and/or certain other financial instruments or indices (the “Underlying Indicator”), whether the Underlying Indicator forms part of the security under the transactions or not. You should therefore ensure that you fully understand the risks involved in the Underlying Indicator and satisfy yourself that you are willing to accept such risks.

As these structured transactions are usually executed over-the-counter, you should be aware that it may accordingly be difficult for you to liquidate an existing position, assess the value of, determine a fair price for or assess your exposure to risks under such transactions. This uncertainty should be factored in by you in the overall consideration of the potential impact of your investment in the transaction.

6. OVERSEAS-LISTED INVESTMENT PRODUCTS: An “overseas-listed investment product” in this statement refers to a capital markets product that is listed for quotation or quoted only on overseas securities exchange(s) or overseas futures exchange(s) (collectively referred to as “overseas exchanges”). An overseas-listed investment product* is subject to the laws and regulations of the jurisdiction it is listed in. Before you trade in an overseas-listed investment product or authorise someone else to trade for you, you should be aware of:

- The level of investor protection and safeguards that you are afforded in the relevant foreign jurisdiction, as the overseas-listed investment product would operate under a different regulatory regime.
- The differences between the legal systems in the foreign jurisdiction and Singapore that may affect your ability to recover your funds.
- The tax implications, currency risks, and additional transaction costs that you may have to incur.
- The counterparty and correspondent broker risks that you are exposed to.
- The political, economic and social developments that influence the overseas markets you are investing in. These and other risks may affect the value of your investment. You should not invest in the product if you do not understand or are not comfortable with such risks.

7. CREDIT RISKS: We may not always be your contractual counterparty or the issuer under certain transactions. Where we are not your contractual counterparty or the issuer, your contractual counterparty or a third party issuer, and not us, will be liable to you under the transaction or otherwise in respect of a product purchased by you. Accordingly, in considering whether to enter into such transaction, you should take into account all risks associated with such counterparty or third party issuer, including the counterparty's or issuer's financial standing.

Certain transactions also involve the assumption by you of credit risks which you should ensure that you are able to evaluate.

8. CURRENCY RISKS: The fluctuations in foreign currency rates have an impact on the profit/loss and the financial investment where the transaction is denominated or settled in a different currency from the currency where you carry on your ordinary business or keep your accounts.
9. TAX RISKS: Before entering into any transactions you should understand the tax implications of doing so, e.g. income tax. Different derivatives transactions may have different tax implications. The tax implications of transactions are dependent upon the nature of your business activities and the transactions in question. You should, therefore, consult your tax adviser to understand the relevant tax considerations.
10. COUNTERPARTY RISKS: Please ensure that you are aware of the identity of the contractual counterparty you are or may be matched with. Often, you will be purchasing an unsecured obligation of such counterparty (as opposed to an obligation of a central clearing corporation as would be the case with exchange traded futures and options) and you should evaluate the comparative credit risk.

If your counterparty is the Company, you must note that the Company deals with you at arms length as your counterparty. Unless it agrees in writing or unless otherwise required by law, the Company is not your fiduciary, nor is it willing to accept any fiduciary obligations to you. Any dealing, trading or engagement or transaction with the Company by you could result in a loss to you and a gain to the Company. The Company does not and will not give you any advice whether written or oral other than the representations which will be expressly set forth in the relevant agreement, and any confirmation which may be signed or executed by you after negotiations with the Company as your counterparty.

Your net returns from a transaction would also be affected by the transaction costs (i.e. commission, fees and other charges) charged by the Company. These costs must be considered in any risk assessment made by you.

You should be aware that the Company is engaged in certain customer driven and proprietary activities in many markets. These general activities, as well as the Company's hedging activities which are related to certain transactions entered into with you, may adversely affect the value of such transactions.

10. NON-ADVISORY NATURE OF RELATIONSHIP: Unless you have a specific agreement with the Company for the provision of advisory services, you should note and accept that the Company's relationship with you in relation to your securities, securities related and commodities transactions is purely as execution only broker/dealer or as a counterparty to you. In either case while you are entitled to expect the Company or its employees or representatives to answer your queries, the obligation in so answering is only to be honest. Such answers should not be assumed to be backed by any prior reasonable due diligence or research or specifically suitable for reliance by yourself without you first independently confirming that the answer is intended as specific advice to and is suitable for or to your specific financial needs and objectives or your verifying the same with your independent advisers on its specific suitability for your specific financial needs and objectives. You should also note

Clause A12.3 of the Company's General Trading Agreement and ensure you understand and accept the same as a condition to your relationship with the Company.

11. DISCLOSURES IN RELATION TO THE SECURITIES AND FUTURES (LICENSING AND CONDUCT OF BUSINESS) REGULATIONS ("SF (LCB)R")- REGULATIONS 18A AND 27A: Retail customers are advised to take note of the following information as they pertain to moneys and assets that DBS Vickers receives for their account, with respect to the services provided in accordance with agreed terms.

Disclosure in relation to moneys and assets received on account of retail customers (SF (LCB)R Regulations 18A and 27A)

Your moneys will be held by DBS Vickers on your behalf in a trust account, either with a bank that holds a licence under section 7 or 79 of the Banking Act or if the custodian is outside of Singapore, then one that is licensed, registered or authorised to conduct banking business in the country or territory where the account is maintained. Your assets will be deposited in a custody account in accordance with Regulation 27 of the SF (LCB)R.

Other than moneys received on your account in respect of OTC derivatives contracts, DBS Vickers may withdraw both moneys and assets from the aforesaid accounts and deposit them with an approved clearing house, a recognised clearing house, a member of a clearing facility or a member of an organised market for the following purposes in accordance with Regulation 19 and 30 of the SF (LCB)R as the case may be:

- (a) Entering into, facilitating the continued holding of a position in, or facilitating a transaction in, any capital markets products on your behalf on the organised market;
- (b) For the purpose of the clearing or settlement of any capital markets products on the clearing facility for you; or
- (c) For any other purpose specified under the business rules and practices of the approved clearing house, recognised clearing house, organised market or clearing facility.

Your moneys and assets will be deposited into a trust account or custody account and be commingled with the other customers of DBS Vickers. Your assets will be deposited into a custody account and be commingled with the other customers of DBS Vickers.

While commingling of moneys and/or assets in omnibus account(s) often create savings in fees and have advantages in efficiency, there are risks associated with the commingling of moneys and/or assets. You may be exposed to losses of other customers whose moneys and assets are held in the omnibus account(s), including through cross-netting and/or mutualisation risk.

Trust accounts and custody accounts bear risk. Depending on the transaction, a "holding chain" may exist in which multiple capital markets intermediaries may be involved in a transaction, which may hold the moneys and/or assets differently. Should the financial institution or custodian with which your trust account or custody account is maintained or other capital markets intermediaries as part of the holding chain become insolvent, you may face a delay in the recovery of your moneys and/or assets or not be able to fully recover your moneys and/or assets.

Where your moneys are deposited with an approved clearing house, a recognised clearing house, a member of a clearing facility or a member of an organised market and where such entity becomes insolvent, this may impact your transactions and you may suffer the loss of some or all of the moneys that were deposited. You may also suffer losses resulting from failed transactions.

As your moneys and/or assets (depending on the currency or securities transacted) may be maintained with a custodian outside Singapore, the laws and practices relating to trust accounts and/or custody accounts in the jurisdiction where the custodian is licensed, registered or authorised may be materially different from the laws and practices in Singapore relating to trust accounts and/or custody accounts. Accordingly, the level of protection may not be the same as that accorded to moneys and assets that are held in Singapore, which may affect your ability to recover the moneys and/or assets.

We strongly suggest that you review all materials (as supplied by us and as supplemented with independent advice which you have been encouraged to take) pertaining to the risks associated with any transaction.
